Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Great Britain Through American Spectacles It is night, and rockets shot up from the stern of the ship invite the pilot-boat and the steamtug to come out to meet us. The sea has its back up, and the pilot-boat makes a dash for our steamer, and misses it; another dash, and misses it again. Then we see the blue and red lights of the tug-boat coming out as much as to say - I will show you how to catch a steamer! aims at it, but crosses in front of our prow; aims at it again, but falls behind our stern. We stand on deck in the sopping rain to watch this aquatic game, until wearied we retire to our room for slumber. As we are falling to sleep, there is a sudden charge of stout men into our private apartment. What is the matter now? Have the old-time pirates resuscitated their business, and are we to be seized and made to walk the plank? By the dim light from the Hall I see the three men by mistake putting out their hands toward the berth in which sleeps the better half of us. As I look down from the upper berth I hear loud voices saying, Welcome to England. By delegation London, Leeds, and Dublin have looked in upon us. I respond in my shirtsleeves, but I am so surprised at the sudden incursion that the response is not worthy of the occasion, and amounts only to a sudden ejaculation of Where did you come from! That scene was only a forerunner of the cordiality and generosity of these people of Great Britain toward...
