Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 178 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Four friends dull summer turns into a dangerous adventure when they stumble into a mystical, unknown world. Now they have to try to find their way back home with only the word of a gypsy, a vague prophecy, and an enchanted book to guide them. But as they face the evils of this world, finding their way home becomes the least of their problems. The wretched queen that rules over the land wants their heads, but unfortunately, she s their only ticket home. The four friends now have to dodge an army, defend themselves against creatures of the unknown, and try to hold onto themselves and their friendship as they travel along their perilous journey. Can Carla, Taylor, Maddie, and Jenny support each other through the chaos that swirls around them? Or will everything crumble beneath their feet? In Mezziniah, anything s possible. Mikaila Rushing, born and raised in South Texas, developed a passion for storytelling at a young age. She has devoted much of her time to writing and participated in many juvenile writing competitions. At twelve years old, she completed her first novel, The Magician s Portal, before entering high school.
