Slayden (chairman) presiding. The Chairman. Gentlemen, the committee has assembled for the purpose of hearing what may be said in support of H. R. 13045. This particular meeting was called at the request of Mr. Borland, and we will recognize him as being in charge of the matter and let him put on his witnesses as he sees fit, with the simple request that the hearing be expedited as much as possible, because each member of this committee has other things that require attention. We are going to give you to-day, but would like to push it along as fast as possible, and would like to have you make your speeches as brief as can be done. Mr. Borland. I would like to have Mr. Talbott make the first address. Statement of Hon. Joshua F. C. Talbott, a Representative From the State of Maryland. Mr. Talbott. Mr. Chairman, I will not occupy your time more than a very few minutes. I am an old Confederate soldier myself, and we of the South, so far as we are able, have erected monuments and memorials to our people, and I do not think a more fitting memorial can be erected to President Lincoln than a highway connecting the National Capital with the battle field that was the high-water mark of the advance of our people. The war is over, and we would all like to have, so far as I know, this memorial erected to President Lincoln. Of course it would...
