Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Bourget, who had abandoned Catholicism in 1867, began a gradual return to it in 1889, fully converting only in 1901. In 1893, in an interview he gave in America, he spoke about his changed views: For many years I, like most young men in modern cities, was content to drift along in agnosticism, but I was brought to my senses at last by the growing realization that the life of a man who simply said I don't know, and not knowing I do the thing that pleases me, was not only empty in itself and full of disappointment and suffering, but was a positive influence for evil upon the lives of others. On the other hand, those men and women who follow the teachings of the church are in a great measure protected from the moral disasters which almost invariably follow when men and women allow themselves to be guided and swayed by their senses, passions and weaknesses.
