All is set in flat tones, tedious to him who yearns to glories beyond the sky line, but dear to those who under a blazing heaven have dreamed of English shadow. To them, the passing of the clouds over the long level pastures, the mobile light, are treasures more firmly held for their quiet setting. When day is over, and the moon. rising, inks tree-shadows on the grass, and the stirring in the boughs is as a caress of underlying peace, we draw near to the wanderers who here sought repose. Quick with sympathy, under the summer night, we image two, standing within the shade of the gaunt mansion, and...
