Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Record of Hiester Clymer: And Historical Parallel Between Him the Major-General John W. Geary Pennsylvania was contributing her blood and treasure without stint, in support of the National cause, and for her own defence, it becomes a pertinent inquiry on which side Mr. Clymer was to be found; and whether he cast his talents, his influence, and his means on the side of the Government or of its enemies. Fortunately this record is before us in an authentic and unquestionable shape; and it shows that he is now the fit representative of his party, as he was its leader in the Senate during the rebellion, being foremost in denunciation of the Government, and strenuous in his opposition to every measure calculated to suppress rebellion. In 1861 he opposed and voted against arming the State after Sumter had been attacked. No one was more bitter in denunciation of, and refusal to hear loyal democrats at the Capitol in defence of the Union. He voted against an increase of pay to the soldiers who were perilling their lives on the battle-field; he refused to give them the right of voting while in the service of their country; he refused to support the bill disfranchising deserters; and was loud and unblushing in expressions of admiration and sympathy for Vollandigham and other traitors. In nominating him his party has been eminently consistent with its whole course during the rebellion; no member of it was more steadily and persistently antagonistic to the great Union party, and the cause of the country during the whole of that period. We now furnish the proof of these assertions. Against Arming the State in...
