Software engineer Paul meets a mysterious beautiful woman, Mathy, in a deserted temple in India. She claims to come from thousands of years in the past, somehow transported to the present when her wish to touch the moon was granted. Taken by her beauty and intelligence, Paul brings Mathy back with him and into his life though his family suspects she is delusional. Mathy and Paul together embark on a journey that takes them across the world, from California to China, from Texas to Baikonur, all to fulfill Mathys obsession to reach the moon. Beset by obstacles and failure at NASA she disappears in the Bermuda triangle. Fifteen years later, a woman of obscure origin Nila, takes a leading part in the Chinese effort to build the first permanent settlement on the moon. When the colony is threatened by nuclear sabotage, risking her life, she saves it but vanishes without a trace as the world speculates if these two women may be one and the same. What is the truth What does their secret mean for the future of humanity This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
