Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This Catholic priest brings forth information and insight about the doctrine of Purgatory. He gives examples that the Pagans even believe in the existence of purgatory because of Tradition once passed down by Adam. In addition, that the soul is immortal. We cannot cover all testimonies. There are still Celts, Scandinavians, Mexicans, Savages, Turks, and Jews. Persians In order to relieve the soul of the deceased, and to procure him the protection of the celestial spirits. prayers are recited for him during three days and three nights, supposing in all cases that he died penitent: for, according to the Ravaites (Rituals) a person ought not to be prayed for who dies in his sins.the relatives give the clothes of deceased or money to a pure Mobed (priest), or to a just person who is in want. (Anquetil Usages Relig. Des Parses.) Chinese A person is bound to prepare by a retreat and abstinence for the ceremonies that are offered every year for the deceased relatives. There are different occasions on which this fast is observed; 2ndly, before the ceremonies in honour of their ancestors; 6thly, during the three first days of mourning for the death of a father or mother. (Cibot. Miss. Apost. in China.) Tartars Like all the ancients; they believed in the transmigration of the soul: they thought that, in passing through the different bodies, the soul is purified, rendered perfect, and re-united with the Deity! (Suche-ulh-chang-King; a venerated Thebitan theological work, translated into Chinese more than 1,800 years ago.) Indians Do penance, restrain your senses, do good works with a pure heart, practice rectitude, which is the principle of all good. He who acts in...
