The Nerve Center: Lessons in Governing from the White House Chiefs of Staff

By Terry Sullivan, James A. Baker

Texas A & M University Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Nerve Center: Lessons in Governing from the White House Chiefs of Staff, Terry Sullivan, James A. Baker, In what James A. Baker III has called the "worst job in Washington," the chief of staff orchestrates the president's conduct of the U.S. government. He holds the unique responsibility to magnify the time, reach, and voice of the president of the United States. "You need a filter, a person that you have total confidence in who works so closely with you that in effect he is almost an alter ego," Gerald Ford has said. In this volume, resulting from the Washington Forum on the Role of the White House Chief of Staff, held in 2000 in Washington, D.C., twelve of the fifteen men who have held the office of chief of staff discuss among themselves and with a select group of participants the challenges, achievements, and failures of their time in that role. Their purpose is to find lessons in governing that will help future chiefs of staff prepare to assume the office and organize the staffs they will lead. These pages of frank and uncensored discussion present in...
